of his divine workings in the soul. To this end, he inspires the Church, which has sprung up into life under the influence of his impetuous breathing, to propose at once to the Faithful that doctrinal summary, which is comprised in the three Feasts immediately coming after Pentecost. The Volumes following this will show us the Holy Spirit continuing his work, and, on the solid foundations of the Faith he established at the outset, building the entire superstructure of the Christian virtues.

This was the idea which the Author of the LITURGICAL YEAR was busy developing in the second part of his work, when death came upon him; and the pen that had begun this Volume, was put, by obedience into his, who now comes before the Faithful, begging their prayers upon the arduous task he has undertaken, of continuing the not quite finished work of his beloved Father and Master. Yes, we beg of them to beseech our Lord, that he himself will vouchsafe to bring to a successful termination an undertaking that was begun for his honour and glory, and has already produced so much fruit in the souls of men.
