Source. Open the source witness. 1859 Turin printing: public domain in the United States. Fragment witness: part of the act is absent from this printing. From Bullarium Romanum, volume-04, 1859-turin-bullarium-volume-04-reading-order-v2-latin. Source-derived reading-order LF lines 74112-74226; 74242-74245. Exact scan leaf bounds 622-622; automated printed-page labels remain unverified. Uncorrected, uncollated source OCR. The selected witness retains its source headings, identified historical notes, dating/signatures and literal abbreviations without expansion. Attribution is the printing's; source dates remain literal and no normalized act date is supplied. The extent statement below comes from the earlier raw-OCR review; its line numbers refer to the raw OCR text, not to this reading-order text: Independent papal confirmation VI (raw OCR line 73687), synopsis (raw OCR line 73690–73693) and actual BoDifacius protocol (raw OCR line 73703–73707) frame the surviving body (raw OCR line 73709–73797) and dating (raw OCR line 73799–73802). Narrative sections1 and3 are replaced by references (raw OCR line 73718)/73736, explicitly disclosed in own historical notes (raw OCR line 73748–73751). These missing substantive portions prevent a complete-act claim. Retain the clean papal fragment (raw OCR line 73687–73802); explicit serial imperial companion begins (raw OCR line 73804) and remains separately classified non-papal. Reading order follows native word coordinates; the printing's marginal summaries are kept as separate blocks beside the sections they annotate and its page-foot notes as separate blocks at the page break; held pages, if any, keep raw OCR order.
